

An Urgent Need

How often you hear the remark: "I make enough money, but I can't save any." Now really should it be "cant" or "don't"? Do you try, and try hard? If you do let us suggest something. Open an account with our bank. At the end of every week pinch out a little for a deposit, no matter how small. It is remarkable how soon you will take pride in seeing that account grow. Then if a chance for investment shows up you will have the banker's advice free, besides the necessary funds to do the business.

If you are starting out in life with no other assets than your head and two hands, nothing will help you attain the saving habit better than a bank account. The need is urgent. The time is now. Ask the successful business man who started as you are starting if this is not true.

Town and County News

"Why Did You Leave the Farm, My Lad?"

"Why did you leave the farm, my lad? Why did you bolt and leave your dad? Why did you beat it off to town? And turn your poor old dad down? Thinkers of platform, pulpit and press are wallowing in deep distress. They seek to know the hidden cause Why farmer boys desert their pa's."

"Well, stranger, since you've been so frank, I'll roll aside the hazy bank; I left my dad, his farm, his plow, Because my calf became his cow, I left my dad, 'twas wrong of course, Because my colt became his horse, I left my dad to sow and reap Because my lamb became his sheep, I dropped the hoe and stuck the fork, Because my pig became his pork, The garden truck that I made grow Was his to sell, but mine to hoe."

"It's not the smoke in the atmosphere, Nor the taste for life that brought me here Please tell the platform, pulpit and press No fear of toil nor love of dress Is driving off the farmer lads, It's just the methods of their dads."

Sunday School Social
For the past two months the Presbyterian Sunday school has had the red and blue campaign for new members. Prof. J. J. Hendrickson was captain of the blues and Mrs. J. A. Adams captain of the reds. The reds were victorious by the narrow margin of one. Last Thursday evening the blues entertained the Sunday school and other friends of the church. Prof. Hendrickson presided, and after a short song service, called for four-minute talks on Sunday school work. Mrs. J. A. Adams spoke on "How to Make Things Go." Prof. A. S. Weston on "What a Boy Likes." Mr. Noel on "The Sunday School Habit and Its Value." Prof. Thackston, a new member of the high school faculty, was introduced by Prof. Hendrickson and made an interesting talk on Sunday school work. Tom Greene, Esmond Hawkins and Noel Vawter, returned soldier boys from France, were called and made interesting talks on "Our Experiences Over There." Following this part of the program ice cream and cake was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in a social way. A large crowd of both young and old were present.

The contest is on again for the next two months, and a special effort will be made to enroll all who are not members of any Sunday school. A special invitation is extended to all boys and girls and older people who live in the country to come to the Presbyterian Sunday school. W. L. NOELL.

"You don't look old or cross with those glasses, Daddy."

At last Brown has found the perfect glasses for NEAR and FAR vision. No longer is he obliged to peer over his reading glasses to see distant objects. No longer does he fuss with two pairs of glasses. And no longer does he wear the bifocals with the unsightly seam or hump that makes him look old and cross. Brown's eyes are now gaining in looks as well as in usefulness. His eyes are constantly in focus with everything within his range of vision. He can see near and far with the same pair of glasses, and no one but himself knows that they are two-sight glasses, because they are

Advertising Man Speaks

Says Meritone Helped His Nerves and Brought Vigor and Energy

W. R. Arnold, advertising agent for the Vendome, the largest theater at Nashville, talked willingly for publication recently regarding his experience with Meritone, the new system medicine.

"I'm glad to give a statement for Meritone," Mr. Arnold said.

"I was so extremely nervous I could hardly sleep at all at night before I took Meritone. I'd lie awake half the night and, of course, the next morning I felt tired out. Finally, I started losing strength and then I couldn't do my work right."

"I can notice a big change since taking Meritone. I go to sleep easily at night now and I feel fine when I get up in mornings. I've got back my old energy and ambition."

"I've got a great appetite now, too. I'm eating regular meals again."

"I'm to take a new advertising position with Ringling's circus soon and I'm feeling so well that I expect to make a record with them."

Meritone is highly recommended for stomach, liver or kidney trouble, catarrh, rheumatism, nervousness and other ailing conditions of the system.

Meritone is sold exclusively in Huntingdon by the Patrick Drug Company.

Neal Tarbot, who has recently returned from France, visited in Huntingdon this week en route to his home in Saltillo.
